Parents visit Room to Grow every three months, starting at the mother's third trimester of pregnancy and then throughout the baby's first three years of life. At each visit, our social workers monitor the baby's developmental progress and help parents navigate the challenges and celebrate the joys of parenting. This includes helping parents understand their child's developmental stages, offering strategies to recognize and respond to their child's many needs, and providing resources and support to help cope with raising a child in typically stressful circumstances. At every visit parents also receive age-appropriate material necessities, allowing them to provide fully for their baby in an immediate and meaningful way.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

Room to Grow is dedicated to enriching the lives of babies born into poverty throughout their critical first three years of development. Our unique three-year program aims to break the cycle of intergenerational poverty by providing families with one-on-one parenting education and support, essential baby items, and connections to vital community resources to ensure a healthy and secure start in life.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Room to Grow measures success with three primary program goals: parents gain the knowledge, resources, and confidence to ensure that children fulfill their emotional, intellectual, and physical potential; low-income families create safe, healthy, and enriching home environments in which their children learn and grow; and children thrive during their critical first three years of life, meeting appropriate language, cognitive, social, and physical milestones necessary to enter school ready to learn and achieve success in education and beyond. In 2016, (1) 98% of Room to Grow parents increased their confidence as parents and caretakers; (2) over 90% of parents read aloud to their children regularly, twice the rate of their low-income peers; and (3) nine out of 10 Room to Grow children met their primary developmental milestones on time, the same rate as their higher-income peers, 20% higher than expected in most low-income communities. Room to Grow has an 88% retention rate for program participants.

In 2016, Room to Grow provided over 4,000 hours of clinical support to 600 babies and their families. Over the course of the year, nearly $500,000 worth of baby items were donated to Room to Grow and subsequently provided to families in need, including was received and organized by over 5,000 dedicated volunteers, who contributed over 12,000 service hours.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

Management reviewed a draft of the form 990 with the audit/finance committee and provided edits to the tax preparer. After this process was performed, the form 990 was sent to the full board of directors after being filed with the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

Room to Grow has a "board approved" conflicts of interest policy. Each board member must fill out an annual declaration stating they had no conflicts or identifying the nature of their interested party transactions; employees do so at the start of their employment.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO & Top Management

Each year, the governing board and executive committee reviews comparable salaries based on a recognized study and reviews the performance of the executive director to determine if the existing salary falls within these ranges. After a deliberation of this matter, a new proposed salary and benefit package is voted on. The minutes of the board of directors reflect the nature of this process.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b - Compensation Review & Approval Process - Officers & Key Employees

Each year, the governing board and executive committee reviews comparable salaries based on a recognized study and reviews the performance of the executive director to determine if the existing salary falls within these ranges. After a deliberation of this matter, a new proposed salary and benefit package is voted on. The minutes of the board of directors reflect the nature of this process.
